

Don't Say Nothin

Bryce Fox

Nobody gets a day after I'm dead
I'm torn with what I'm running through my head
I'm tired of all my messages on read
Leave it alone, that said I want

I'm channeling the storm right off the course
I'm planning how to rock us with the balls
The time we had was all I have
So when I say good night I hope it fucks you up

What's up?
No, don't say nothin' if it's not for you
No, don't say nothin' unless you want me too
I'm not the type to back down from a fight, so I'll
Show you the psycho if you want me to

No, don't say nothin', don't say, don't say it
My heart is beating through without a terror
My fat lips on the hook for what I said
Now I'm left with the question, what's your plan?

I should know
That said I don't, know

No, don't say nothin' if it's not for you
No, don't say nothin' unless you want me too
I'm not the type to back down from a fight, so I'll
Show you the psycho if you want me to

Hey!
No, don't say nothin' if it's not for you
No, don't say nothin' unless you want me too
I'm not the type to back down from a fight, so I'll
Show you the psycho if you want me to

No sorries to say
Apologies made
As always
We said way too much
So lay down our guards
What you wanna say?

No, don't say nothin' if it's not for you
No, don't say nothin' unless you want me too
I'm not the type to back down from a fight, so I'll
Show you the psycho if you want me to
