What a view, tattoos, she a mood, she a giver
She know how to lay it down, get a little freaky
She don't like just anybody, but with him she's easy
He know how to give her what she wants, what she's needing
He know how to hit the right spots when he's leading
Uh

When he lifting her, flipping her, tighten the straps
When he training his baby, cuz she been a brat
Heavy breathing and clawing, he love the feedback

She got a unique look in the star light-
She could drain a bank account if she played her cards right...
But she only got eyes for him
Yeah he's a lucky man cuz she a dime, a ten
She know how to keep him coming back time again
Cuz she a loyal little freak, it's hard to find them...

She know how to
Drop low with it
To the floor with it
She been taking classes on the pole with it
I just like when she puts on a show with it
So go slow with it
Yeah go slow with it
...She got tricks that you've never seen
Good god body fixed in my memory

She been doing things that should be felony...
