

Curiosity

Bryce Savage

She's a good girl on the outside
But a bad girl when the moods right
In the moonlight she becomes his naughty little thing...
She's exclusive
She's elusive
But with him she's so inclusive
She's a giver, but only when fulfilling all his needs
Yeah she's got those pretty eyes
But behind them lies
Thoughts of him at night
She can't seem to fight
Feelings that she knows she's gonna have to feed...
And ever since the day
That he got a taste
She's his only chase
He cannot replace
Thoughts of her up in his mind, a curiosity

She looks like a little angel
But at night's a different angle
Demon eyes looking fatal
Got a mind, dirty playful

Yeah she got naughty thoughts
That she can't control
She don't wanna tell, she would rather show
Red little heart, black little soul
Teeth that are sharp, bite that is cold

She got a secret little dirty mind
Lewd imagination in the night
She don't like to waste any time
She so creative when you cut the lights

She just wanna make him feel good
She just wanna make him feel good
She know how to make him feel good...

She's a good girl on the outside
But a bad girl when the mood's right
In the moonlight she becomes his naughty little thing...
She's exclusive
She's elusive
But with him she's so inclusive
She's a giver, but only when fulfilling all his needs
Yeah she's got those pretty eyes
But behind them lies
Thoughts of him at night
She can't seem to fight
Feelings that she knows she's gonna have to feed...
And ever since the day
That he got a taste
She's his only chase
He cannot replace
Thoughts of her up in his mind, a curiosity

She's something worth holding on to

After everything she's gone through
Rose full of thorns
Hope through the storms
She's got stories that could haunt you...

She knows things that she shouldn't know
Only see'em when you're really close
In the dark it's a different show
Mirrors on the walls only know

She just wanna taste
The forbidden fruit
She can't shake her lust
She likes being used
By someone she trusts
By somebody who
Is as hooked on her
As she is to you...

He don't want her to leave when...
She's tangled in his sheets and...
She gives him all he needs mmm...

Slowly falling
Cravings calling
I won't let you go

She's a good girl on the outside
But a bad girl when the mood's right
In the moonlight she becomes his naughty little thing...
She's exclusive
She's elusive
But with him she's so inclusive
She's a giver, but only when fulfilling all his needs
Yeah she's got those pretty eyes
But behind them lies
Thoughts of him at night
She can't seem to fight
Feelings that she knows she's gonna have to feed...
And ever since the day
That he got a taste
She's his only chase
He cannot replace
Thoughts of her up in his mind, a curiosity
