

Ghost

Bryce Savage

She a baddie with some nice eyes
She could stare right thru your soul with that eyesight
She don't pick a side, bi, everyone's type
And she don't even know, yea a pretty little ghost...
She be poison like a snake bite
And she really come alive in the late night
Once she put the venom in'em, yea she taste right
And she don't even know, yea a pretty little ghost...

She can drop it low with it, la da da da da
She look like a pro with it, la da da da da
Know how to move it slow with it, la da da da da
I just wanna flow with it, la da da da da

She know how to drive em crazy
Do it daily
But she can also be a lady
And freak amazing
A little nerdy, little brainy
She like role playing
Got me drooling, got me craving
She misbehaving

Little freak
In the night
Yea she do it right
No she don't show it in the light
Keep her secrets tight
Yea outta mind, outta sight
And she just my type
Tattoo'd living life
Like we don't live it twice

Yea she damn near perfect
When she working
Like a dancer she can work it
But only for him
Got those eyes that are flirting
Always searching
And her thoughts are perverted
Yea disturbing (haha)

She comes alive when darkness takes over the light
She looks like innocence was possessed by the night
She has some thoughts that would make other people shy
My lil' dark butterfly

She a baddie with some nice eyes
She could stare right thru your soul with that eyesight
She don't pick a side, bi, everyone's type
And she don't even know, yea a pretty little ghost...
