

Going To Hell

Bryce Savage

(She loves like the devil)

Yeah she looks like an angel
But loves like the devil
I think that I'm going to hell...
She's perfectly cursed and she's perfectly curved...
I know that I shouldn't kiss and tell...
But oh my god
Oh oh my god
This might be the best night of my life...
Cuz she looks like an angel
But fucks like the devil
I think that I'm going to hell...

She got looks that could devastate
Got a mind most would medicate
The dirty kind she could educate
The loyal type, yeah she dedicate
She got a body you should celebrate
Tattoos, yeah she decorate
A mighty fine piece of real estate
Take my time when it's getting late

She look good when she in black
She know just how to distract
Have her once you're comin back
She my dopamine, she bad

She's all he's ever wanted
She's all he's ever needed
His soul is hers to keep it...

Yeah she looks like an angel
But loves like the devil
I think that I'm going to hell...
She's perfectly cursed and she's perfectly curved...
I know that I shouldn't kiss and tell...
But oh my god
Oh oh my god
This might be the best night of my life...
Cuz she looks like an angel
But fucks like the devil
I think that I'm going to hell...

She know she's got that look that could make people hooked
Boys or girls, she's a crook
Stole their hearts, little black book...
Sign me up, I'm ready to drown
She an all-star, 10's all around
Broke that scale, man I lost count

She got a dirty mind, but a pretty soul
In the day light, you would never know
Catch her in the night, different story told
Darkness is her prime, she put on a show
She never gets old
Eyes that could glow

Moves like a pro
Nude head to toe
The things we do when we're alone...

Yeah she looks like an angel
But loves like the devil
I think that I'm going to hell...
She's perfectly cursed and she's perfectly curved...
I know that I shouldn't kiss and tell...
But oh my god
Oh oh my god
This might be the best night of my life...
Cuz she looks like an angel
But fucks like the devil
I think that I'm going to hell...
