

The High

Bryce Savage

(She took over my life without warning)

She got that innocent face but a dirty little mind
A body like that should be a crime
She'll take over your life without warning
Got you addicted to the high in the morning
Long legs and she tastes so fine
I just wanna fuck around and make her mine
Cause she took over my life without warning
Now I'm addicted to the high in the morning

She a freak and yeah she know it
Don't believe her then she'll show it
She got a body that's hypnotic
She get everything cause if she want it then she got it
She a baddie
A little bratty
Anyone would pay the bills just to have her call 'em daddy
A pretty savage
She living lavish
Just wanna feel her in the dark I gotta have it

Tattoos, her fit got me feeling some way
Those eyes and lips on a bad little face
She's one I'd miss can't let her get away
I wanna feel her in the morning...
