

Thousand Miles

Bryce Savage

I know that look on your face
You're comin' my way, you're comin' my way tonight
Here goes another mistake I know I'm gon' make
I know I'm gon' make tonight

I wish I let it go, you're better off alone
'Cause I'm about to fuck it up with you
I know that look on your face
You're comin' my way, you're comin' my way tonight

And I will never change
I couldn't even if I wanted to for you
There's nothing left to say
If I was you, if I was you
Then I would stay a thousand miles away

A thousand miles away
