

Love is a Blessing

Bryce Vine

Ay

Ay

This one the theme song for old dreams
The Granny on the block that was so mean
Sundays for brunch, grilled cheese for lunch
Save room for street lights and home teams
My jeans stained green from the grass
Stole liquor from Mama but I got caught
First gear, fond of the gas
Still got the cops on my ass, flash
I lost Auntie when Nonnie was two
I heard that they moved like swallows in June
We pop a hydrant when they close the pool
Hakuna Matata, my favorite tune
New York summer is a vibe
630 9th and 45
Jezebel, Hell's Kitchen
In my '65 listenin' to jazz of Thelonious mind

Hallelujah every day

Your love is such a blessing, your love is such a blessing
Though we move (Though we move) all over the place (Oh)
Your love is such a blessing, your love is such a blessing

I miss that chubby kid with glasses and bleached hair
We fought long battles with dragons that weren't there
I miss my dog playing tag around my monkey bars
Used to be the days of looney tunes and watching entourage
Another day reappear in the back of my brain
I was there, now I'm here, wow
And every road that you gave me
The pave was the gift and I say

Hallelujah every day (Every day)

Your love is such a blessing, your love is such a blessing
Though we move (Though we move) all over the place (Oh)
Your love is such a blessing, your love is such a blessing

(Yeah) I can see you from miles away
Like it's yesterday, love is here to stay
I can feel you from miles away
Like we used to say, love is here to stay

Another day reappear in the back of my brain
I was there, now I'm here, wow
And every road that you gave me
The pave was the gift and I say

Hallelujah every day (Every day)

Your love is such a blessing, your love is such a blessing
Though we move (Though we move) all over the place (Oh)
Your love is such a blessing, your love is such a blessing

Oh, you know we're lucky
All we know is lovely
Love is such a blessing for us (Uh, yeah)

Call us through the surface
Oh, you know you're worth it
Love is such a blessing for us (Uh, yeah)
