

My Holiday

Bryce Vine

I don't really know how far we are from all the days I've left behind
But I know this is all worth while cuz my whole's life's the party I'd hope to find
But I don't wanna come back home, So i'll be gone Til I've had time to play
I've been waiting all my life to say, This is my holiday

Right now, I feel like I lucked out, It's been a long flight, feel like we just touched down
And every single bad feelin and critical self vision of never reachin the top has drained out
I guess we finally found a sweeter piece of pie, built somethin outta nothin called it castles in the sky
Now we on that boulevard just roamin for the drive, blew a kiss to Mona Lisa, knew that shit would bring a smile out Wild out, I got my people and my passport, time's nothin, what the fuck I need a watch for?
I know it's crazy but boy is it damn sweet, someone pinch me so I know i'm not asleep

I don't really know how far we are from all the days I've left behind
But I know this is all worth while cuz my whole life's the party I'd hope to find
But I don't wanna come back home, So i'll be gone til I've had time to play
I've been waiting all my life to say, this is my holiday

Right now, I just wanna freeze. breathe. and celebrate these moments i've been lucky to receive Ain't no shame in how we do it, cream will rise us to the top
On vacation, foreign ladies say they love the way I talk Ain't nothin to it, at best we just pursue it more. You gotta love it, ain't nothin else to do it for I'm wiped out but I'm ready to go. Take a brief intermission then its on with the show
I'll just ride around on my long board, have drinks on Abbott Kinney
Need a girl to love, gotta choose one, but theres just too freakin' many Maybe that's just a part of it. Maybe this is the start of something that we never knew that we would ever become a part of, so...
We'll see what bein' richer feels like, make a fortune, break a cookie, damn my future looks bright
I know it's poison but boy is it damn sweet, someone pinch me so I know i'm not asleep

I don't really know how far we are from all the days I've left behind

But I know this is all worth while cuz my whole life's the party I'd hope to find

But I don't wanna come back home, So i'll be gone til I've had time to play

I've been waiting all my life to say, this is my holiday

Every night a different city, raise a drink up if you're with me

Au Revoir to Paris, Bali calls for more exotic living

I don't really know how far we are from all the days I've left behind

But I know this is all worth while cuz my whole life's the party I'd hope to find

But I don't wanna come back home, So i'll be gone til I've had time to play

I've been waiting all my life to say, this is my holiday
