

Everything At Once

Brye

All I wanted was for you to want me
And all I asked for was some reciprocity
I know you don't owe me the time of day
But it would have been nice
If you would have thought twice

Before stringing me up, and stringing me along
Dropping breadcrumbs, listening to my songs
Holding hope for a thing that could never be
It would have been nice
If you would have thought twice

Every road every path I take
Leads me right back to the mess you've made
And every time I think it's at bay
You make me feel everything at once
Every text every joke that's made
Leads me right back to the fucks I gave
The good the bad the joy the shame
You make feel everything at once
You make feel everything at once

Last night we talked til 2am again
I thought we made it clear that we're just friends
I know, it doesn't mean anything to you
But it was so nice
I wish I would have thought twice

Before getting attached, latching right back on Writing you love songs, like they wouldn't scare you off
I know I don't mean anything to you
So would have been nice
If I would have thought twice

Every road every path I take
Leads me right back to the mess you've made
And every time I think it's at bay
You make me feel everything at once
Every text every joke that's made
Leads me right back to the fucks I gave
The good the bad the joy the shame
You make feel everything at once
You make feel everything at once
You make feel everything at once
