Rift Between Us

Brymir

I've ventured in realms beyond this world
And seen deeds of evil, unspeakable
Too weary and empty to walk this road
And tame my affliction, consuming me

If a way could be found
I'd turn my ship around
If scars could be undone
I'd heal them, one by one
No solace in the cold
Vast emptiness, so old
Lightyears away from home

The rift between us
A chasm of aeons
Recounts a tale of vagrant souls
The chains that bind us fall
I let the end unfold

While drifting in limbo between the stars
As forces of nature pulled me apart
The longing for you never left my mind
So lonely the road of a wanderer

If a way could be found
I'd turn my ship around
If scars could be undone
I'd heal them, one by one
No solace in the cold
Vast emptiness, so old
Lightyears away from home

The rift between us
A chasm of aeons
Recounts a tale of vagrant souls
The chains that bind us fall
I let the end unfold

The rift between us
A chasm of aeons
Recounts a tale of vagrant souls
The chains that bind us fall
I let the end unfold
