

Vanquish the Night

Brymir

Emerging from ships containing the end of man
The cosmic tyrant comes to claim this land
Aeons will pass without
A view of the sacred sun above
Enthroned and crowned, a man
To end the blight
And vanquish the night!

Lead us across the stars
Reunite our scattered kind
Reforge the kingdom of man
And dominate the realm of space and time

Lead us across the stars
Reunite our scattered kind
Reforge the kingdom of man
And dominate the realm of space and time
