

Billion Naira Dream

Brymo

Oh, times are changing
And oh all things remain the same

The air we are breathing
Is enough for every one of us

The future you speak of is here
The hour of harvest is near

I'm telling stories
In the song I sing
Searching for glory
In the life I live
To help me feel
The future that I see
To make come true
A billion naira dream

I'm a man with many faces
And my life is in many phases
I crawl when I'm running
I'm cold when I'm burning oh oh
Help me remember myself
I'm lost in the man I've become

I'm telling stories
In the song I sing
Searching for glory
In the life I live
To help me feel
The future that I see
To make come true
A billion naira dream

The future you speak of is here
The hour of harvest is near
I'm telling stories
In the song I sing
Searching for glory
In the life I live
To help dream
The future that I see
To make come true
A billion naira dream
