

Emotions And Limbs

Brymo

There's only one clock in the room
The scent of their hair, the smell of their perfume
Smoke some exciter it burns like matter
Load up another, the rush comes after

Emotions and limbs they tangle together
You give some, you take some, she calls you lover
It's all in the moment, go deep go faster
It's all in the moment, go raw, go harder...

When we come back down
When the high runs aground
I would hear the sound
She's still calling out

No, it's far from enough
My pulse is missing in the room
You been away, for so long
The pleasure's halved when you're gone...

Emotions and limbs they tangle together
You stroke some you ride some, she floods all over
It's all in the moment, go hard, go longer
It's all in the moment, go raw, go faster...
