

Entropy

Brymo

And you're always buzzing like neon
I can remember now as the song plays
And you became everything I stayed away from Pulled me down every time I try to take off
But know you wouldn't fly away with me
You carry too much weight for love
My mind was always on the run
You always said I was not the one

But darling, you loving
Loving a selfish man
Everyone is whispering me, my baby, Jane
It's entropy, entropy
Took you and left me memories

I'll pretend for leaving and to stay strong
Made myself and you need my end to the high road
So everyone can remember what I stand for
So I can love
And I can hold
And I can keep you mine

Darling, you loving
Loving a selfish man
Everyone is whispering me, my baby, Jane
It's entropy, entropy
Took you and left me memories

Held on to love, too tight
And I talked you...
By your orders I pulled down the house we built
And maybe it's you
Maybe it's we, yeah?
Maybe it's me
It's all on me

Darling, you loving
Loving a selfish man
Everyone is whispering me, my baby, hint
It's entropy, entropy
