Johnbull
You cut my heart in two
You left without a word
I don't blame you
How much more can the bullying take?
Well like you, most are stuck at home
They got nowhere to go
They don't play cool
The looting feels like home
The looters make a fool of all
And I never felt a thing like this before
And you, you won't believe what changed since you've been gone

Johnbull
Where'd you go Johnbull boy?
Johnbull
I miss you so, Johnbull boy

The stars are gone
The sky is burned
Where have you gone?
The night is cold

One, two
The people marching on
The leader makes a fool of all
And I never seen a thing like this before
And you, you won't believe what changed since you've been gone

Johnbull
Where'd you go Johnbull boy?
Johnbull
I need you so, Johnbull boy

The night is burned
The sky is gone
Where have you gone?
The night is cold

Johnbull, Johnbull my son
Johnbull
Johnbull, Johnbull my son
Johnbull

Johnbull, Johnbull my son
Johnbull
Johnbull, Johnbull my son
Johnbull

In all of history
Never so much tragedy in one
And you, you won't believe what changed since you've been gone
