Time

Brymo

Oh uh...

Sitting in the dark all alone
Trying to escape the unknown
I'd never try to hide
I'd know if the world was cold
I was wasting time

It's screaming from the other side of my reality
But the voice was fading, I'm far, I could barely hear
I was wasting time

Where the bright light reveals my scars
Healing me with its words
Was I wasting time?

Standing in the light all alone
Never could escape what I know
I have always tried, so I know that the world is cold
I was wasting time

It hurts to admit, I must say
Thought this was a dream, not today
The shivering, the pain, always real
Wasting time

And the darkness hid my scars
Healing me with its void
I've been wasting time

But the bright light revealed my scars
Healing me with its word
Was I wasting time?

I was so long gone...

Watching the moments go by
I did it to myself, I can't deny
I was wasting time

The days, the nights, the hours just went by
I was too scared to try
Lies on myself why?
My tears they wouldn't dry
Wasting time

Ohh oh oh
Ohh oh oh
Wasting time

Where the bright light revealed my scars
Healing me with its word
I was so long gone
