Rebellion thrives in town
And you know like I know
And you know like I know
And you know like I know
It moves soft in town
It moves soft in town

I wasn't grateful, (oh no) you wasn't faithful (oh no)
I need some vodka, maybe some Grey Goose
You need some grape juice (oh no)
I couldn't save you (oh no)
How long would it take you, before you recognize
That, I am the Alpha, Alpha
I was in different time zone, looking at you from my iPhone Fixed on trying to get a ride home, fixed on trying to get my eyes of f you
That's how, I got caught up in the cyclone
Now I'm standing on my own, tryna hand you these roses
It's funny how time flies before you showed me what a hoe is
I wasn't the coldest (hold it)
Link me only where the doe is
You tell me your broke and broken
I don't have tiktok, I could care less about what your posting (froze n)
Rent me a ghost, I'm ghosting
You want back, cos I'm chosen
Pull out my staff and split your red sea let my kids go in (go in) Connecting you to my router (alpha)
Connecting you to high power
Twin towers gonna fall and break you
Whose gonna save you
How long is it really gonna take you, before you recognize
That, I am the Alpha, Alpha
I was in different time zone, looking at you from my iPhone
Please stop bugging I'm not home, please stop calling up my phone

Rebellion thrives in town
And you know like I know
And you know like I know
And you know like I know
It moves soft in town
It moves soft in town

Rebellion thrives in town
And they know like you know
You know like I know
And they know that we know
That we know
