

When You Fall (Move And Dream)

Brymo

Everybody's looking, for a place to go
And everyone's looking, for a thing to do
And we're all trying to make a difference
And do you hear what I'm saying?

It's okay, it's alright
When you fall down, you can rise again
It's okay, it's alright
If you fall down, you can rise again

My heart is made of glass
I guard it with my laugh
I'm taking all my chances
I'm saying, "Yes" to all advances

And still, I'm trying to make a difference
And do you feel what I'm feeling?

It's okay, it's alright
When you fall down, you can rise again
It's okay, it's alright
If you fall down, you can rise again

Still, I'm moving and I'm dreaming
And do you hear what I'm saying?
It's okay, it's alright
When you fall down, you can rise again
