

Bubble Generation

Brynn Cartelli

Bubble desperation

I hate it when we text, I lose my expectations
Don't [?] with the next conversation
That's been planned out in our head

Bubble generation

Seeing all of you in Times New Roman
Let's fall in love like it's the first time
Or does the thought of talking blow your mind?
Bubble generation
Seeing all of you in Times New Roman
Feelings only pass through a screen
Where's all my ladies who know what I mean?

I hate the feeling of knowing when you write and take the credit
For the things I said
At night you told me to forget
I scroll, I scroll, then I scroll some more
Until my heart is on the floor
It's funny 'cause I read all good comments
But the bad one holds me tighter through all

Bubble generation

Seeing all of you in Times New Roman
Let's fall in love like it's the first time
Or does the thought of talking blow your mind?
Bubble generation
Seeing all of you in Times New Roman
Feelings only pass through a screen
Where's all my ladies who know what I mean?

All these pretty girls, they're covering up
What they wish they didn't have on their PhotoShop
With the likes they bought
And the followers they thought were their friends
I am part of the mad addiction
I'm a [?] involved with the bubble generation
But I wanted to be done 'cause I found someone
Who makes me forget about views
We're far too in love to watch celebrity news
Yes, and I hope the same for you

Bubble generation
Bubble generation
Bubble generation, yeah

Bubble generation

Seeing all of you in Times New Roman
Let's fall in love like it's the first time
Or does the thought of talking blow your mind?
Bubble generation
Seeing all of you in Times New Roman
Feelings only pass through a screen
Where's all my ladies who know what I mean?
