

Do You Even Love Me Anymore?

Brynn Cartelli

Do you even love me anymore?
Need to come to terms with this
To come to terms with you, oh na na na
Do you even want me anymore?
You still say that you love me
But we ain't as fresh as morning dew

I'm sorry I can't read all the signs
Still learning to drive, no, no, baby
If I had a car you know it would be parked in your heart
Yeah, love songs are hard and baby

Do you even love me anymore?
Need to know before I lay out in the night with you, oh na na na
Are you wishing for me on a shooting star?
Hoping I can stay right here like the gum that's on your shoe, baby
I know I haven't done what you've done but babe, I ain't here to judge, no
The way you look at me ain't the same at how you whisper my name
Well, tell me who's to blame?

Do you even, do, do, do you even, even
Do you even love me anymore, anymore?
Do you even, do, do, do you even, even
Do you even love me anymore, baby?
Do you even, do, do, do you even, even
Yeah, yeah
Do you even, do, do, do you even, even
Do you even love me anymore?

When I go and grab your hand, do you blow away?
Do you love me anymore or do you wanna stay?
Tell me is this something else for you
'Cause when darks are creeping in
This love feels too good to be true

Do you even, do, do, do you even, even
Do you even love me anymore?
Do you even, do, do, do you even
Do you even love me anymore, baby?
Do you even, do, do, do you even, even
Yeah, yeah
Do you even, do, do, do you even, even
Do you even love me anymore?

Do you even love me anymore?
Need to come to terms with this
To come terms with you, oh na na na
Do you even want me anymore?
You still say that you love me
But we ain't as fresh as morning dew, babe

Do you even, do you even
Do you even love me anymore, anymore?
Do you even, do you even, do you even, even love me anymore?
Anymore
Do you even love me anymore?
