

Terrified

Brynn Elliott

You and I knew that we should really try to take it slow
But it's so hard when You're so good, kind of perfectly natural
Been tryna hide it

I'm thrown off completely
This feels far too easy
I'm so scared

'Cause I feel safe with you
Even though it feels so right
Honestly, I'm terrified
Baby, all the other guys
They fool me once, they fool me twice
I, should have seen through their white lies
I let them skate on a thin ice
So, it feels so right
But, honestly, I'm terrified
To fall for, you
To fall for, you
To fall for, you
To fall for you

Three weeks in, yes, getting too comfortable
To call you up and
Tell you my feelings, I've never done this before
Can this be real love?

I'm thrown off completely
This feels far too easy
I'm so scared

'Cause I feel safe with you
Even though it feels so right
Honestly, I'm terrified
Baby, all the other guys
They fool me once, they fool me twice
I, should have seen through their white lies
I let them skate on a thin ice
So, it feels so right
But, honestly, I'm terrified
To fall for, you
To fall for, you
To fall for, you
To fall for you
