

Always Forever

Bryson Tiller

Uh huh
Yeah you know I tried to stop
Yeah you know I tried
I tried to give you a little less of my time
Starting to feel like I'm never in my right mind
In my right mind
Is it the right time, babe?
See you in the nightttime, babe
It's nightttime

Wish you had feelings like mine
But it feels like I'm still just a homie
Acting like you don't want me
Nah, shorty just don't do it for me
You do it for me

Say you done doing it for me, then say bye
Say bye
Say-say now, girl say bye
Say now, say goodbye, say goodbye

You know I tried
I really tried
Now you're right back on my mind
I feel the time just t-t-t-t-t-passin' by
Thought this was always forever so I'm actin' wild
Would you lie to me babe
No, that ain't right to me baby
You know I was here to stay
Ain't really got much left to say, please

Say you done doing it for me, then say bye
Say bye
Say-say now, girl say bye
Say now, say goodbye, say goodbye

Overloaded
On all the memories and all the moments, yeah
When I lookback to them it's hard to focus
I like to imagine the time being frozen
Don't tell no lies, you wasn't mine
But hit my line up
Why? 'Cause you was tired of somebody
I won't say his name
I'm simply trying to forget everything
Since you don't remember anything
