Bryson Tiller

Yeah

Hey, yeah, yeah

Hey, yeah, yeah

Hey, yeah, hey

Some days (Yeah, some days, some days, yeah)

Some days I wake up and I feel empty, anxiety, depression fills my mind

I'm worried I'll fell behind

Some days, yeah

I'll wake up and I'll probably wanna end my sobriety

Baby, please, come save me

I feel amazin', you're my drug

How many should I take? (Yeah)

'Cause I need all your love, don't fade away, yeah, yeah, yeah,
yeah

Don't go, don't leave, yeah, hey

You see, I need to feel it at all times

And I need all your love, how many do I take?

And you forcin' it

'Cause I need all your love, don't fade away (All the time), ye ah, yeah, yeah, yeah

All the time

Hey, hey, hey, oh, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, oh

I wanna (Yes, I wanna) be close to you (Yes, I wanna)

Another dose of you on my mind

Another dose of you

Higher, higher, high

Higher, higher, high
