There's not a single day that goes by
Where I don't think about you
I pass one more stop that I was to get off
Because I don't feel like
I need to go somewhere
I just sit vacantly, leaning against
When I saw outside of the window

There was a road that we used to walk
Familiar smell of the wind that feels like you are blowing
That song that we used to listened to together is being heard

It's like you. It feels like I saw you
Even this painful season was good to see
Without noticing, I was smiling and surprised
Because I didn't like myself being like this. It's like you

Whispering sweet love
With seeing each others eyes
Sometimes it was desperate, and painful
I woke up the memories of those days
I'm not still in pain. It's not something like that
But well. I'm just like this
I'm just haunted
By memories of those days

Where ever I go
I find your traces
From here to there
All figures look like you
How's it? Are you happy
Being far from me?
When everybody's asleep
I'm awake vacantly

Alleys where you used to live
It's still same, it hasn't being changed
That welcoming light from the silent streetlight

It's like you. It feels like I saw you
Even this painful season was good to see
Without noticing, I was smiling and surprised
Because I didn't like myself being like this

I came for a walk to where we used to hold our hands
I came here again man you don't know how it feels
I'm possessed with the thought that I saw you
How bad do I want to see you?
I think I'm crazy
I gotta move on and say goodbye

I might miss you again
I might want you again
I erased and erased those days

But I miss those days because I might see you
(I might see you)
Even this painful road is good to be Without noticing, I call your name and I saw tears
(Your name)
Dropped from my eyes, and I laughed

Because I missed you
