Where were you girl when I needed you the most?
You vanished from my life so quietly like a ghost
No trace, erased, from my life you were effaced Gone with the wind, it feels like I've been misplaced (leirereirereire leirereirereire)
I feel abandoned by you girl, was ready to give you the world Things were going so well, but then you decided to desert me
So I'm tellin you this
