There are several layers of meaning
To your words what is what?

Mysterious footprints
Find them and follow
Cornered are my shadows
Hidden behind the light what?

Can't meet you the only one who knows my answer
Before it comes to an end
I wanna know everything

The more time flows the more it deepens
I'm between your past and future right now

Don't leave me
I believe start running
No ending... you're my heartbeat
No matter what rain falls
No matter what darkness erases
I'll definitely save you
You are not alone

The hand of the clock that should be frozen is now
Advancing step by step like moving on

Calling me passing me
Missing all of it destiny
Even so it starts the one way race
Even if we start to separate that's ok
You don't gotta worry bout a thing
Nah not a thang

This time it's my turn to send them
I'll definitely reach you your thoughts

If only I could rewind time and start over
You cry between the shadow and light

Don't leave me
I believe reach out
No ending... you're my hope
No matter what rain falls
No matter what darkness erases
Keep your eyes open and feel it
You are not alone

Everything returns to the past in seconds
I found a reason for living in the present
Meeting you

Don't leave me
I believe start running
No ending... you're my heartbeat
No matter what rain falls
No matter what darkness erases

I'll definitely save you
You are not alone
