Let's go, let me fly to my
Keep your gaze down and zoom anywhere
Come on now, let me fly to my
Get me outta my blues
And now I'm feelin' brand new

Everyday
It's so frustrating, it's driving me crazy
Feel like it's still day one
Somebody give me back the clock
I lost everything this year

I'm still in bed
A bloated stomach
It's killin' me slowly, nah
Anyway
I want to leave any way
There's no way
This room is all I have
Then, what can I do here?
Into my world
Let's change it, yeah

Let's go, let me fly to my
Keep your gaze down and zoom anywhere
Come on now, let me fly to my
Get me outta my blues
And now I'm feelin' brand new

Everywhere
I wonder if this place was like this
Suddenly this strange scenery
I'm absorbed by memories
Even the old desks, the changed sunlight
Looks special
I'm little less lonely, nah

Better way
I just found a better way
Sometimes we get to know
Broken is beautiful
I'm light
Fly away
This thing is so surreal
Yeah

Let's go, let me fly to my room
Keep your gaze down and zoom anywhere
Come on now, let me fly to my room
Get me outta my blues
And now I'm feelin' brand new

This room is too small
Yes, to contain my dream (Yah, yah, yah)
Landing over the bed
This is the safest place
Somehow there's no joy, no sadness, no emotion
It's just me here
Sometimes this room becomes an emotional trash can
It hugs me

They greet me again
The toys in my room, like people
It's as crowded as if we're out of town
The sound of TV
You can change your mind
This is a travel that only I can enjoy
Delivery food
Fill it up with optimism, I'm full

Let's go, let me fly to my room
Keep your gaze down and just zoom anywhere
Come on now, let me fly to my
Get me outta my blues
And now I'm feelin' brand new

Let's go, let me fly to my room
Keep your gaze down and just zoom anywhere
Come on now, let me fly to my room
Get me outta my blues
And now I'm feelin' brand new
Let's go, let me fly to my room
Keep your gaze down and just zoom anywhere
Come on now, let me fly to my room
Get me outta my blues
And now I'm feelin' brand new
