□□□□□□Oh yeah
□□□□Good Day □□

I said it's alright, oh yeah
One day it'll be a good day, for sure
You won't be alone, always
I'll be by your side, we'll be okay
(If) we're connected, (Sing it like) surely it'll be brighter tomorrow

As you share happiness, it multiplies
But if you share sadness also, it multiplies too
So always laugh
And rest on my shoulder
We may argue sometimes, but we make up quickly
I understand your feelings too, well~ it's written on your face
Things like appearance, hmm hmm it's as if it doesn't matter
It has no relationship with our "relationship"
It's fine even if it's everyday
Showing off at this point, no thanks
Even without money, just seeing you is OK
So don't worry, let's laugh again
Yep bro, always the same
Yep bro, by your side
At anytime, we happy together
This unchanging feeling is the same as from back then

I said it's alright, oh yeah
One day it'll be a good day, for sure
You won't be alone, always
I'll be by your side, we'll be okay
(If) we're connected, (Sing it like) surely it'll be brighter tomorrow

It's already been three years since we've started walking together
Between men, the idea of the "Oath of the Peach Garden"
We're pretty much family
Like the blood that flows through our bodies
Like "lifting" weight, I'll "lift" you up
Laughing with friends until the end of our thoughts
Ma friend, don't be afraid
The swag amongst those who can hold on to their hope seriously
Ay
Hold up
Grab onto my hand
Let's fly! We in Gangnam
Now cheers! The Champagne that pops

You can depend on me
You can say "it's hard"
To me
You can lean on me, lay on me
Lean on me

So laugh, oh yeah
Tomorrow is a new day, that's why

The night is over, oh yeah
The light is shining in, just go your way

The space between dreams and reality
We keep walking till the end of life
Joy and even pain
If we share it...
I said it's alright, oh yeah
One day it'll be a good day, for sure
You won't be alone, always
I'll be by your side, we'll be okay
(If) we're connected, (Sing it like) surely it'll be brighter tomorrow

I said it's alright, oh yeah
One day it'll be a good day, forever
