I won't give up

I think I lost again
You look like you're mad
In a blur, game over over over

If this was a game
I could load it again
I guess I gotta deal with this, deal with this
Real world

It'd be better if it was a game
Because it hurts so much
I need to heal my medic
But I'm another star
Blame me because I'm imperfect
Brake in my head, brake in my step, always
All I wanted was to do well
I wanted to make you smile... damn

Please give me a remedy
A remedy that will make my heart beat again
What should I do now
Please save me, give me another chance
Please give me a

A remedy, a melody
A memory that's left behind just for me
If I stop right now

If I just turn it off, will everything will be more comfortable?

I'm OK but I'm not OK
I told myself I was used to it
It always hurts like it's the first time

Not a good gamer, that's right, you can't control me
I keep hurting 'cause of my repeated mistakes and 50 thousand other things
My song lyrics, each gesture
Every word become afraid of my jamais vu
Again, I try to escape
But still, you grab me
My shadow becomes bigger
My life and you, equal sign
So my remedy is your remedy

Please give me a remedy
A remedy that will make my heart beat again
What should I do now
Please save me, give me another chance
Please give me a

(Remedy)
Running again, stumble again
(Honestly)
Even if it repeats endlessly
I'll keep running

So give me a remedy
A remedy that will make my heart beat again
What should I do now
Please save me, give me another chance

Please give me a remedy
(Is this success? I've returned)
A remedy that will make my heart beat again
(I'll concentrate on reaching you no matter what, falling, stumbling)
What should I do now?
(This familiar pain crashes over me again)
Save me
(It's not easy this time either)
Please give me another chance
(Will I give up? No, no never)
I won't give up
