No matter what I do ��衰衰
衰衰衰
衰衰?

Louder than bombs I sing
衰衰衰
衰衰衰
衰衰衰
衰衰衰
Louder than bombs I sing

Now it has grown to be so clear
The unfamiliar shadow amidst those cheers
Perhaps I wouldn't be able to believe the words:
"Let's see and hear only good things" no more

Your silent sadness
It shakes me
In my quiet sea
Waves would sometimes rise

Louder than bombs I break
All the pain pour out
From the moment I knew
The expression you had on wasn't that expression
Louder than bombs I break

Baby I'm nothin'er than nothin'
Lighter than the light
Don't you want a thing from me
But you say I'm somethin'er than somethin'
Lighter than the light
Don't you give up your life
Here I stay, pray
Just for better days
Everyday's a maze
Wonder if this is my place

Where's my way?
The ground keeps quaking
I collapse on my own, mute
Louder than bombs, yeah
I want to tell you, that darkness
Exists everywhere, don't be afraid of it
Whatever night may swallow me, I won't give up
The fight for you, we'll shine

You and I, we feel it together
Sadness and pain
It's not a coincidence
Yeah, we picked this game

Louder than bombs I say
I'll tell it in front of the world
The times I've ignored you
The days where I kept running away, there won't be any more
Louder than bombs I say

People say they're jealous of us
The pain I have, they say it's hypocrisy
No matter what I do
I get caught up in shit
If not us, yeah, who will do it?

People say they're jealous of us
The pain I have, they say it's hypocrisy
No matter what I do
I get caught up in shit
If not us, yeah, who will do it?

Louder than bombs I sing
Make a promise for you and I
Whatever wave may sweep over us
We will endlessly sing to you
Louder than bombs I sing
