Ya, what? I'm a disgrace?
I don't care, as soon as I get the mic I'm ruling this game
You know it, you're like half cooked steak at best
Right here I'm a star, ey, I'll deal you my finishing blow
World business, I'll be frank
Everything's selling out immediately, everyday
No one else is of this class, this value, I'm getting my fill of it
And you? You're a mess
Mic, mic bungee

Mic mic bungee
Bright light ahead of me
I could have lost, but I'm fine, sorry
Sorry, Billboard
Sorry, Worldwide
I'm getting too famous, sorry mom
How about you go show some respect to your own parents?
Go ahead and take em to one of my concerts
I do it, I do it, you're disgusting ratatouille
If you're feeling sick to your stomach then c'mon man
Sue it

Did you see my bag
Did you see my bag
It's overflowing with trophies
How you think bout that
How you think bout that
Haters are all trying to hide from me
My success is shining against my money
I'm so firing firing, its going up in flames right now
Looks like you're trying to escape already
How you dare
How you dare
How you dare

In my hands are trophies

Can't even count them
So heavy I can't even carry them
Mic drop, mic drop
Take, take caution
Take, take caution of my mic

Lodi dodi I don't take days off
So busy my body can't keep it all up
MIC Drop
Of my rhyme, rhyme take caution
Of my mic, mic take caution

Take a look at this hook, that came straight from me
Once upon a time
Aesops fables fly
Look now, right over here
Long as it's me; everything's fine, everything goes smooth
Where we gonna fly to next?
Which throne will we soar to when the time comes?
Yeah I'm on the mountain
Yeah I'm on the bay
And when I'm on the stage I burn it down
Mic drop bam

Don't square up to me any more, this is the last time
And don't say anything else, I'm not listening
Don't square up to me any more, this is the last time
And don't say anything else, I'm not listening
Y'all will end up regretting it
The difference between what we know

Is really just astonishing
All you stand together
Y'all will end up regretting it
The difference between what we know
Is really just astonishing
All you stand together
