Tear
Tear

Goodbye, to me, is tear
Even without my noticing, it comes into bloom around my eyes
Words I could not have told now flow
The lingering love crawls on my face
For a time, you were my dear
But now, the beer tastes only bitter
My heart that is stained with a belated self-hatred
Gets emptied even by that wind brushing by

Goodbye that ended up coming to me is what I deserve at the end of my playac ting full of lies
If someone turns back time for me
Could I maybe have been more honest
My bare face that only I know
And my ugly and humble old friends within myself

Could you have still loved me with the smile you used to make when looking at me

Forever, stop saying things like forever

There's gotta be an end anyway

If there's a beginning, I don't wanna listen to that

Advice that's too right or too many words of comfort

I don't wanna listen to that

I was just so scared

Because it felt like maybe I had never loved you at all, not for even once

Although it's late, you were sincere

Only you loved me

More

You're my tear

You're my, you're my tear

You're my tear

You're my, you're my tear

You're my fear

You're my, you're my fear

What more can I say?

You're my tear

We used to walk towards the same place

But here becomes our last

We used to talk about forever

But now we mercilessly destroy each other

I thought we dreamed the same dream

But now the dream truly became a dream

My heart breaks, Please I'd rather burn it

So that the pain and my lingering love don't remain at all anymore

You're my tear

You're my, you're my tear

You're my tear

You're my, you're my tear

You're my fear

You're my, you're my fear

What more can I say?

You're my

Goodbye, to me, is T.E.A.R

A thing like a tear is a luxury

There's not going to be a thing like beautiful parting

So please begin now

Woo, take it easy, slowly cut out my heart

Yeah, yeah squeeze with your foot the pieces of my heart

So that my lingering feeling, such feeling doesn't remain anymore

Burn off my heart that is torn into pieces

Yeah right, it's right there, Why are you hesitating

This is the ending you wanted, so

I hope you kill me without hesitation

Woo, yeah, yeah burn it

Woo, yeah, yeah, yeah burn it

Woo, yeah, yeah, yeah burn it

So that even the burnt ash doesn't remain

This is real you, and this is real me

I've now seen the end, and even my resentment doesn't remain

I woke up from my sweet dream, and close my eyes

This is real you, and this is real me

We used to walk towards the same place

But here becomes our last
We used to talk about forever
But now we mercilessly destroy each other
I thought we dreamed the same dream
But now the dream truly became a dream
My heart breaks, Please I'd rather burn it
So that the pain and my lingering love don't remain at all anymore

You're my tear
You're my, you're my tear
You're my tear
You're my, you're my tear
You're my fear
You're my, you're my fear
What more can I say?
You're my

What we should say
We know
The answer is set
But to answer is always hard

Why do I shed tears
Why tear it off
It's no use for me
Goodbye, to me, is only there just at those moments (Flashback)
At the moment a word comes out of your mouth
The moment where our focus becomes irregular
The moment where everything is in danger
Our end that those two letters presented to us
I should have not shed tears, I should have not torn it off
I can't say things like that
In the future, I'm with an incurable disease of parting
You're my beginning and end, That is all
My meeting and my parting
That was all
Going forward, fear will repeat itself
Caused by you
