Is this love
Is this love
Sometimes I know
Sometimes I don't
The next phenomenon
What should I write?
Too many words circle around me
My heart doesn't exist
I just feel it
Like the moon when the sun rises
Like how nails grow
Like trees that shed their bark once a year
You are the one who will change my memory
A person of love
Before I knew you
My heart was uniform

I just want people, people, people
You're sleeping in all my corners
Love me, love
Made of
We're people, we're people, we're people
In that myriad of straight lines
My love, love, love
Sit on top of it and become hearts

I live so I love
I live so I love
(Live & love, live & love)
(Live & love, live & love)
I live so I love
I live so I love
(Live & love, live & love)
(If it's love, I will love you)

You make I to an O
I to an O
You've got me
Why do people sound like love?
You make love to a love
Live to a love
You've got me
Why do people love to live?
It's a long way from I to U
All the words crossed, and I reached you
Look, you and I make the same sound
But I'm not you
I want to be part of your bookcase
I want to be part of your novel
In love

I just want people, people, people
You're sleeping in all my corners
Love me, love

Made of
We're people, we're people, we're people
In that myriad of organized lines
My love, love, love
Sit on top of it and become hearts

I live so I love
I live so I love
(Live & love, live & love)
(Live & love, live & love)
I live so I love
I live so I love
(Live & love, live & love)
(If it's love, I will love you)

What if I go?
Will I be sad if I go
If it wasn't me, what would I be?
Do you think you'll leave me after all?

A gust of wind
(I just hope not)
A passing man
(I just hope not)
I feel blue, blue, blue
(Blue all over the head)
How much did you drink
How much

You're my person, my person, my person
You are my wind, my wind, my wind
You are my pride, my pride, my pride
You are my love
One Love (One Love)

You're my person, my person, my person
You are my wind, my wind, my wind
You are my pride, my pride, my pride
You are my love
One Love (One Love)
