

Let go
B-U-two B, eh, eh, eh
Uh

I started thinkin' nightmares
Is just what come to you when you fall asleep (Fall asleep)
I'm on top of this building with all these feelings
And I ain't got the balls but I outta leap (Eh)
Life ain't what I thought'd be (Nah)
And it hurts 'cause there's so much more in the heart of me (Heart of me)
Damn near 43
Still can't get it right like Offset/Cardi B
I don't expect you to pardon me
I know I won't, but the beat goes on (Beat goes on)
Tried my best not to repeat those wrongs
My thermals I'ma keep those on (Keep those on)
'Cause it's colder than a mother-in-laws love
Inside this frigid ass house I built
Probably done hit a thousand broads like Wilt (Like Wilt)
But still I ain't found my quilt
My demons surround my guilt
Like police outside a black man's home (Black man's home)
Only difference, I ain't innocent
Shouldn't nobody give a shit when them boys flat my dome (Pop)
Just a Georgia boy up here in Tennessee
Tryna do my thang like "Pacman" Jones ("Pacman" Jones)
And it'll be in that box where my heart stops
'Fore I let them take my ass back home
I ain't scared of fallin', we all fallen
Refuse to let 'em say I quit
Spent one week in the same outfit
Talk ain't nothin', naw it ain't 'bout shit
Up shits creek, tryna wade out it
I gotta make it worth everythang I lost
Let my guard down but I can't get soft
Boss gotta pay this cost, yeah

My only issue's when I don't have no issues
Don't think about you near enough to diss you
I think about you just enough to miss you
But it ain't room for two in this igloo
Igloo (Aye)
I make it do what it do inside this igloo
It's chilly air, but I'm cool inside this igloo
I think about you too much to forget you
It's always room for you in this igloo
Igloo

You try to hide it
But there's tears all on your face
And all I wanna do is take your pain away
You really froze me out
But I can't be replaced
We can't let this crazy feeling go to waste
Waste
