

Let The Fun Begin

Buck Owens

Hello everybody, get out, come ridin'
It's so good to see you, been wonderin' where you've been
We're gonna have a party for you and all of our friends
So everybody is ready now, we'll let the fun begin

Well, grandmas in the kitchen heatin' up the pot
We'll kill the ol' red rooster, and we'll cook him nice and hot
Sweet potatoes, sliced tomatoes with corn on the cob
So get right out and come ridin', we'll let the good times start

Hello everybody, get out, come ridin'
It's so good to see you, been wonderin' where you've been
We're gonna have a party for you and all of our friends
So everybody is ready now, we'll let the fun begin

Well, the sun is shinin' brightly and here comes cousin Joe
Grandpa is feelin' sprightly and rarin' to go
I hear the fiddle playin' and there's the old banjo
So roll the raft back off the floor and let the good times roll

Hello everybody, get out, come ridin'
It's so good to see you, been wonderin' where you've been
We're gonna have a party for you and all of our friends
So everybody is ready now, we'll let the fun begin
If everybody is ready now, we'll let the fun begin