

Sweethearts In Heaven (Duet)

Buck Owens

Will there be sweethearts in heaven
After we cross the line
If the angels have sweethearts
Then I want you for mine

If I should go first and leave you behind
To face life alone, bare this in mind

That I'll be a-waiting if heaven's my fate
To take you by the hand just inside the pearly gates

Will there be sweethearts in heaven
After we cross the line
If the angels have sweethearts
Then I want you for mine

I'd be a tramp and sleep in the street
Or I'd be a beggar with rags on my feet

If I knew for sure when the time comes to part
Someday in heaven you'd be my sweetheart

Will there be sweethearts in heaven
After we cross the line
If the angels have sweethearts
Then I want you for mine...
