

You're Welcome Anytime

Buck Owens

Back in my arms again back in my dreams again back to this lonely world of mine
No need to call for me just come on home to me you know you're welcome anytime

I guess it wasn't in the cards where our love to go on
I found you had another on your mind
But if your deal don't work out the way you think it should Come on home you're welcome anytime
Back in my arms again...
[ steel ]
Well I've heard that your new love is not the love you've planned
You call me to say you change your mind
If you were just another girl I wouldn't care at all
But I love you so you're welcome anytime
Back in my arms again...
