

For the Movies

Buckcherry

Do you remember all our love, did you get back from what you gave

I see some symptoms of, a path that you forgave
You never were expendable, you always made me feel alive
And now were in the middle of, a transition in our lives

A change of pace could really do some good, she's leaving
An empty case but your bringing back for show, I'm leaving now
Wake up, and see the place, it's all you got and all you take
You don't have to fall to pieces, you have to prove it
Make up, you're pretty face, it's a lovely trip, a lovely place
You got one life here to make it, for the movies

Do you feel singled out, do you feel less than all the rest
You know its interchangeable, the spotlight and the pain
I wanna get on top of this, I want to build that trust again
And if I give it all I've got, I'm sure you'd do the same

A change of pace could really do some good, she's leaving
An empty case but your bringing back for show, I'm leaving now
Wake up, and see the place, it's all you got and all you take
You don't have to fall to pieces, you have to prove it
Make up, you're pretty face, it's a lovely trip, a lovely place
You got one life here to make it, for the movies, yeah, yeah, yeah!

Again I face the fear in this, I see a place for you and I
And we can make the most of it, cause our passion never dies
And if you don't believe in me, I choose the path then change your mind
And you can take me to your room, or wherever you may hide

A change of pace could really do some good, she's leaving
An empty case but your bringing back for show, I'm leaving now
Wake up, and see the place, it's all you got and all you take
You don't have to fall to pieces, you have to prove it
Make up, you're pretty face, it's a lovely trip, a lovely place
You got one life here to make it, for the movies

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
For the movies, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
