

Hello Goodbye

Buckcherry

I wear my heart on my sleeve
I try to get what I need
I only ask for what's right
I turned the corner tonight

I did you wrong, I did you right
But I'll never win this fight

I see the hurt in your eyes hanging over me
Just like the stars in the sky shoot across the sea
I'm so ashamed of the truth and the lies
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello, goodbye

Hello, hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello, hello

Feel's like I'm stuck on a ride
Sometimes I wanna just hide
I wanna give you good news
Don't wanna make you feel blue

All of the days, all of the nights
Is there an end in sight?

I see the hurt in your eyes hanging over me
Just like the stars in the sky shoot across the sea
I'm so ashamed of the truth and the lies
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello, goodbye

I wanna see you come to life
Don't wanna bring you down
Don't wanna bring you down
Don't wanna bring you down

I see the hurt in your eyes hanging over me
Just like the stars in the sky shoot across the sea
I'm so ashamed of the truth and the lies
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello, goodbye

Hello, hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello, hello
Goodbye

Hello, hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello, hello
Goodbye

Hello, hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello, hello
Goodbye
