

No Regrets

Buckcherry

Crying for me as I watch you hide a mine, darling
Dying to see if this is really worth something
What do you mean? 'Cause this keeps going
On and on and on
Until the break of dawn

I was 13 when I lost my innocence
Living at the record store and stealing cigarettes
Messing with the girls and getting stoned to Minor Threat
Singing, "Oh-we-oh", here we go, no regrets

Crying for me as I watch you hide a mine, darling
Dying to see if this is really worth something
What do you mean? 'Cause this keeps going
On and on and on
Until the break of dawn

Nothing working, there was nothing making sense
Music was the only thing that helped me through the mess
Prying eyes and suicide and all the fucking stress
Singing, "Oh-we-oh", here we go, no regrets

"Oh-we-oh", here we go, no regrets
And you know
No need to have no regrets, uh-huh
Whoo!
Dah!
No regrets

Crying for me as I watch you hide a mine, darling
Dying to see if this is really worth something
What do you mean? 'Cause this keeps going
On and on and on
Until the break of dawn

I did everything to figure out a plan
I'm just growing up, not what it takes to be a man
I looked inside my soul and nothing's fucking left
Singing, "Oh-we-oh", here we go, no regrets

Crying for me as I watch you hide a mine, darling
Dying to see if this is really worth something
What do you mean? 'Cause this keeps going
On and on and on
Until the break of dawn
Crying for me as I watch you hide a mine, darling
Dying to see if this is really worth something
What do you mean? 'Cause this keeps going
On and on and on
Until the break of dawn
