

Pain

Buckcherry

Some will say I threw it all away
Some will say I'm happier
Some will say that I'm troubled
Some will say I wasted all my days
I had it all
Some will say I got some demons
And they come out when it rains

Pain, pain
Pain hits my heart and
Pain is the reason
That I'd throw it all away
Pain, pain
Pain makes a mark and
Pain is the reason
So take away my pain

Some will say it's written on my face
It's dangerous
Some will say I live in shame
Some will say I'm locked inside my cage
Given up
Some will say I need some courage
Guess I'm too blind to see

Pain, pain
Pain hits my heart and
Pain is the reason
That I'd throw it all away
Pain, pain
Pain makes a mark and
Pain is the reason
So take away my pain

What will I find I feel so broken
Something inside is hurting me
Never let go instead I hold it
Everything is so tempting

Pain, pain
Pain hits my heart and
Pain is the reason
That I'd throw it all away
Pain, pain
Pain makes a mark and
Pain is the reason
So take away my pain

Pain is the reason
Take away my pain
