

Rain's Falling

Buckcherry

So much that you mean to me
You got to go and tell your people to just let us be
I am ready to spend time with you. Are you ready?

We don't ever disagree
You remind me of what matters, when I struggle to see
It keeps raining. Why am I so blue?
It keeps raining... Baby

Rain's falling, I hear you calling
Rain's falling, I miss you darling
Rain's falling, and summer's drifting away

Don't you ever change a thing
You are prettier than anything that I have seen
Baby, when can I see you? I'm going crazy

When I'm far away from you, I am flooded with emotion don't know what to do,
It keeps raining, why am I so blue, it keeps raining...
Save me

Rain's falling, I hear you calling
Rain's falling, I miss you darling
Rain's falling, and summer's drifting away

I am ready to spend time with you. Are you ready?
Oh baby, when can I see you? I'm going crazy

Rain's falling, I hear you calling
Rain's falling, I miss you darling
Rain's falling, and summer's drifting away
Drifting away
Drifting away
Drifting away
Drifting away...

Rain's falling, I hear you calling
Drifting away
