

Wherever I Go

Buckcherry

I'd like to find a place to hide
Where no one knows my name
Maybe down by the sea
And become a mystery

Nobody seems to understand
They're just doing what they can
It comes to me when I'm alone
Things that can't be taught

Cannot be bought

Wherever I go, my mind goes with me
The people I know, they know I'm empty
Wherever I go, I know to blend in
But everytime, there's something giving me away

I have a dream every night
That wakes me up in bed
Out of darkness into light
And nothing's ever there

Question faith and my beliefs
If I'm good enough to care
In my eyes, my obsession
Is more than I can bare

Should I be scared?

I'm at war
There's a battle inside me
You would hate it
If you see what I see
I see the future
And the future is ugly

Away! Away!
There's something giving me away
Away! Away!
There's something giving me away
