

Wish To Carry On

Buckcherry

A wish to carry on, a wish to carry on
A wish to carry on, a wish to carry on, carry on

It's time again to break down all the walls
To be aware and say what you want
A wish to carry on

Do you feel like you've had enough?
Do you feel like you're out of touch?
Somebody came and pushed you away
Closed all the doors and left you to pray
You made a plan to do what you can, but do you understand?

It's time again to break down all the walls
To be aware and say what you want
A wish to carry on
It's time again to live without a doubt
To free your mind and forgive yourself
A wish to carry on

I wanna change my state of mind
I wanna tell somebody how I feel inside
How I feel inside

I'm broken, I'm battered, I looked at what matters
I know that the truth is much stronger than fiction

It's time again to break down all the walls
To be aware and say what you want
A wish to carry on
It's time again to live without a doubt
To free your mind and forgive yourself
A wish to carry on
A wish to carry on

It's time again to live without a doubt
To free your mind and forgive yourself
A wish to carry on
A wish to carry on
A wish to carry on
Carry on, carry on
