

Evil Man

Bucks Fizz

Every breath I take from you
Every scene and every view
Every star-lined interview
I'm gazing out, inside of you
Slipping so close to a fantasy
I see your shadow over me
Taking a little more each day
Why do we do these things to you
Every day

Evil man can't hide
Evil man can only lie
Evil man denies
Evil man deceives the eyes
Evil man just takes
What he wants of you
And fighting you for every day

Every time I hear you call
Every lie however small
Everyday I'm in your arms
We fear your fire, we fear the hold
Living within this anarchy
These walls are closing in on me
I'm hurting a little more everyday
Why do we do these things to you
Every day?

Evil man can't hide
Evil man can only lie
Evil man denies
Evil man deceives the eyes
Evil man just takes
What he wants of you
And fighting you for every day

He's so evil
Evil man

Evil man
Evil man
He's an evil man
An evil man
He's an evil man
He's an evil man
An evil man
Evil man

Evil man can't hide
Evil man can only lie
Evil man denies
Evil man deceives the eyes
Evil man just takes
What he wants of you
And fighting you for every day
