

What Am I Gonna Do?

Bucks Fizz

Hello, I'm making this call just to tell you
I'm sorry for what I've done

Hang on
Do you think that I'm gonna believe you
When I say it was just for fun?

I know that I lied
And it must have hurt you deep inside

But the only thing that matters now to me
Is making sure you know I love you

It's late and I'm glad you decided to call me
To tell me you feel so bad
I couldn't wait,
I've been sitting here feeling so guilty
And hoping you weren't too mad

I just couldn't see
What it was that made you do it to me

But the only thing that matters now to me
Is making sure you know I love you

But what am I gonna do?
But what am I gonna do with you?
What am I gonna say?
What am I gonna say to you?
What am I gonna do?
What am I gonna do with you?
What am I gonna do?
What am I gonna do with you?

So please tell me you're gonna forgive me
And say that you'll take me back

I will, the first and the last time I'll do it
But next time I'll help you pack
I just wanna say
I'm glad I managed to make you feel the same way

But the only thing that matters now to me
Is making sure you know I love you

But what am I gonna do?
But what am I gonna do with you?
What am I gonna say?
What am I gonna say to you?
What am I gonna do?
What am I gonna do with you?
What am I gonna do?
What am I gonna do with you?

But what am I gonna do?
But what am I gonna do with you?
What am I gonna say?

What am I gonna say to you?
But what am I gonna do?
But what am I gonna do with you?
What am I gonna say?
What am ...
