

Keep Talking

Buddy Brown

Keep talkin'
'Cause what you don't know
Is every time you'd knock me down
I'd just get back on that road
Keep Talkin'
'Cause what you don't see
Is I'm more of a fighter than you ever would've believed

So while you're just sitting back in that air chair
And criticizing my every move
I'm living out my biggest dreams each day
Can't say the same for you
And all of your words they don't really matter
And all of your weapons have lost their strength
You just assumed that I'd never make it
Now that I did I've got you to thank
For pushing me on and giving me fire
Proving you wrong never felt so right
I guess this song is my middle finger
And I'm gonna play it every night
So please keep talkin'

Keep talkin'
'Cause I'm moving fast
And the scars you dealt me way back when
It turns out they didn't last

So while you're just sitting back in that air chair
And criticizing my every move
I'm living out my biggest dreams each day
Can't say the same for you
And all of your words they don't really matter
And all of your weapons have lost their strength
You just assumed that I'd never make it
Now that I did I've got you to thank
For pushing me on and giving me fire
Proving you wrong never felt so right
I guess this song is my middle finger
And I'm gonna play it every night
So please keep talkin'
Just keep talkin'
'Cause it's pushing me on and giving me fire
Proving you wrong never felt so right
I guess this song is my middle finger
And I'm gonna play it every night
So please keep talkin'
Keep talkin'
'Cause what you don't see is I'm more of a fighter than what you would have ever believed
