

Everybody's Got To Go

Buddy Guy

Momma said son, someday you'll learn this lesson, hard times never last, each day is a blessing, keep your eyes on that kingdom waiting down the road, across that river Jordan, everybody's got to

Everybody's got to go home, Heaven only know
Way up in the sky, to that sweet bye bye,
Everybody's got to go

The day my brother died, I thought about a song
My momma use to sing, before she passed on
About our savior Jesus, calling his children home
He leave no one behind, everybody's got to go

Everybody's go to go home, Heaven only Know
Way up in the sky,
To that sweet bye bye
Everybody's go to go

I know I'm not a young man, but I look back over my youth, and think of those who saved me, as I wondered from the truth, I'm not afraid of dying, when it come my time i ll know, I ll meet you over yonder, everybody's go to go

Everybody's go to go, Heaven, Heaven only knows,
Way up in the sky, To that sweet bye bye, Way up in the sky to that sweet bye bye, Everybody got to go

Everybody got to go,
Everybody, Heaven only know
To that sweet bye bye, sweet bye bye
