Evil Twin

Buddy Guy

I saw somebody, lookin a lot like you.
Wrapped around your boss man on a lonely avenue.
I hear you saying that you ain't never been with him.
Well if it wasn't you baby, it must have been your evil twin.

Now your evil twin got your pretty little face.
And your heart-shaped booty, I would know it any place, hunnie.
Now I still hear you saying that you ain't never been with him.
Yeah, it seems to me, yeah if that ain't you baby, well it must have been your evil twin.

Yeah, you know baby, I met your whole damn family.
Who's foolin who?
Your mama had three boys and one girl, that must be you.
And I still hear you sayin, hunnie, that you've never, never, never been with him.
Well now listen to me one last time.
If that wasn't you baby, then that must have been your evil twin.
